

BULL-NANZA RAFFLE RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. An exhibitor can enter more than one bull. Entry fee of $100 applies for each entry.
2. If an exhibitor's ticket is the winning ticket, he/she will not be allowed to choose their own bull.
3. Any bull entered into Bull-nanza Raffle during CBC must be included in your private breeders' pen.
4. All Bull-nanza entries will receive signage in order for them to be easily recognized by ticket buyers and public in general.
5. The bull must be owned by the exhibitor entering the raffle. An affidavit must be completed and signed by bull owner to verify that the animal is eligible for transfer to a new owner if chosen. All entries will be verified with associations as well as tags/tattoos will be read on site.
6. Open to any bulls. All entries must be ringed or have a humbug while in the show ring. All animals displayed in the Canadian Bull Congress must be tagged with a CCIA approved tag.
7. The owner of a bull that is chosen by the grand prize ticket winner will receive $7,500 paid by cheque.
8. There will be a maximum of 30 bulls.
9. Deadline for entering a bull is December 13, 2018.
10. No one under the age of 18 years may enter a bull or purchase a raffle ticket or have their name put on the raffle ticket.
11. Raffle tickets will be sold at $40 per ticket. There are 250 tickets printed. All cheques must be payable to Camrose Regional Exhibition.
12. Committee members or members of their immediate family can enter a bull, and committee members may purchase raffle tickets.
13. There will be no cancellations or refunds on purchased raffle tickets or entered bulls. Substitutions will be allowed for the entered bulls. Please refer to your confirmation of entry as to the DATE FOR SUBSTITUTION.
14. Ticket sales will be cut off on Saturday, January 26, 2019 at approximately 11:30 a.m.
15. Ten names will be drawn from the barrel for the grand prize draw.
16. The 10 semi-finalists or representatives will enter the show ring and be present when the entered bulls parade into the show ring. The 10 names will be put back into a clean draw barrel.
17. The draw will then take place in reverse order with the last ticket in the draw barrel being the winning ticket and have the opportunity to pick the bull. Tickets that are drawn from tenth to second will be awarded donated prizes.
18. The grand prize draw will take place on Saturday, January 26, 2019 after the Ranchers' Choice Show in the Camrose County Show Pavilion (show ring) at the Camrose Regional Exhibition.
19. The grand prize winner must choose a bull when in the show ring. If the grand prize winner or their representative is not present, then the Canadian Bull Congress chairman will contact the winner by phone and arrangements will be made to choose an animal. If the prize, as chosen by the chairman, is not claimed within 24 hours of the draw, then the prize will be sold or put up for auction. A cheque will be given to the winner for the net proceeds from the sale or auction – with a minimum of $1,500 to be guaranteed by Canadian Bull Congress.
20. Possession of the bull takes place the moment the grand prize winner chooses the bull. This bull will not be removed from the show prior to 5:00 p.m. on January 26, 2019.
21. The winner or representative's choice of bull is final. No substitutions can be made after the choice has been made.
22. There is no cash in lieu of bull option. The winner must claim the bull as his/her prize. The raffle winner is responsible for his own livestock transportation from the show.
23. Camrose Regional Exhibition, Canadian Bull Congress, members, families or other associates are agents of this draw only. We are not responsible for the breeding performance, soundness, body condition or any other defect of the animal chosen.
24. A veterinarian will be on site to ensure entered animals are in overall good health.
25. Tickets will be available for purchase before the Canadian Bull Congress as well as at the show on the weekend.
